

Canadian author, Billi J. Miller, to highlight North Central Seed Show and Ag Expo February 5th

year old prairie farm.

Her website goes on to explain that when Billi married her husband, a 4th generation Canadian farmer, she noticed there were very little photographs of their rich, 100-year farming heritage. As a passionate photographer, she felt called to do something about it. Harnessing her entrepreneurial spirit, she created a successful business as a photographer and writer. In 2016, she authored the first of a two-book series about the remarkable contributions of farmwives and has since been recognized on CBC, Global TV, as well as countless newspapers and magazines both in Canada and in the U.S.

Billi is a photographer and writer who believes that families should have a meaningful collection of photos that remind them every day why it is they love living where they do and who it is they love. Miller has truly found her passion “telling stories from the heart and stories that matter” with her work.

In 2018, Billi has started an online Blog Series titled: “The Women Among Us” where she continues the dialogue she started with her Farmwives book project by celebrating and honoring women from all walks of life.

Billi resides with her husband and their two young girls on a 107-year old farm in Alberta, Canada. Everyone is welcome to attend at the MLS-Mohall School on Wednesday, February 5th.

The Renville-Bottineau Ag Improvement Association (RBAIA) is proud to welcome the author, photographer, speaker to highlight their speakers at the 76th Annual North Central Seed Show and Ag Expo in Mohall. She will perform at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, February 5th at the MLS Mohall Public School.

Billi J. Miller is an author, photographer, speaker, and writer from east-central Alberta, Canada. Previously a city-living, 9 to 5 Government worker, Billi moved to the country to marry the man of her dreams in 2010 and traded concrete and traffic for the life on a 100-
